Dear friend

I have made provision with Mr Wallcut to furnish you with $150. - and you will have $100 more at the end of this Mo which I hope will relieve you from all embarrassment - and I hope you will get along without having to call for any thing further from your Trust fund which should if possible remain till sickness requires its use - The income of the Liberator will by no means admit of such continued extra drafts - the expense of hope & printing is increas'd this year more than $200 over former years - & you have now had with this between 400 & $500 - extra. Since first of Jan'y -. I hope you will not think that I have the slightest wish to curtail your enjoyments, but I know how easily expenses increase when not constant ly guarded against --

Yours ever
S. P. -
Philbrick
